

COCKTAIL BOOK

HISTORY OF CORFU

The first settlements on Corfu island date back to 775-750 B.C. with the Eubea island inhabitants. By the beginning of 730 B.C. Corfu was inhabited by Corfiots and Corinzi, with the latter, settled in the Kanoni peninsula. A period of harmony began between the two people which delivered prosperity and splendour to the island. Forged coins appeared during that period and the colony of Epidamnos was founded. The relationship between Corfiots and Corinzi was broken when the former decided to support the Democrats and the latter Oligarchs. The conflict came to an end as the Peloponnesian War finished. In 375 B.C. the Corfiots allied with the Athenians which allowed them to gradually pursue their independence.

The 2,400 years which has followed have inspired us to create our very own first cocktail list honouring the Corfiots and its heritage.
